

GBR/CAA PRIVACY NOTICE

At the GBR/CAA hereafter referred to as the Association, we're committed to protecting and respecting your privacy.

We have not appointed a Data Protection Officer to oversee our compliance with data protection laws as we are not required to do so, but our Data Protection Compliance Manager has overall responsibility for data protection compliance in our Association. Contact details are set out in the "Contacting us" section at the end of this privacy notice.

This Notice explains when and why we collect personal information about people who join the club by whatever means, how we use it, the conditions under which we may disclose it to others and your rights in relation to your personal data.

We may change this notice from time to time so please check the website at gbrcaa.org or request a copy occasionally to ensure that you're happy with any changes. By becoming a member of the Association, you're agreeing to be bound by this notice.

Any questions regarding this Policy and our privacy practices should be sent by email to sec@gbrcaa.org

How do we collect information about you?

We obtain information about you when you apply to become a member of the Association either online with the British Model Flying Association (BMFA), via telephone, or in person.

What type of information is collected about you?

The personal information we collect might include:

Your name, address, email address, telephone number, BMFA number, GBRCAA number, Your membership type and whether your willing to help support or judge at any of our competitions.

The legal bases for the processing of your personal data is to enable the Association to fulfil our contractual obligations and provide membership services.

How is your information used?

We may use your information to:

- process your membership;
- to carry out our obligations arising from your membership;

- seek your views or comments on matters relating to the Association and model aircraft flying
- notify you of changes to our services;
- send you communications which you have requested and that may be of interest to you. These may include information about Association events and contests and other Association related matters, also information from the BMFA that may be of interest.

How long do we retain your information?

18 GDPR 2018 V1.1

We will hold your personal information on our systems for as long as is necessary to carry out our obligations in relation to your membership, or as long as is set out in any relevant agreement between us. Where an individual persons Association membership lapses your information will be securely kept for as long as is required.

Who has access to your information?

We will not sell or rent your information to third parties.

Please be reassured that we will not release your information to third parties beyond the Association unless we are required to do so by law, for example, by a court order or for the purposes of prevention of fraud or other crime.

How you can access and update your information?

The accuracy of your information is important to us. You can check the information we hold is correct by email to sec@gbrcAA.org

What are your rights?

9. (i) the right to access;

You have the right to confirmation as to whether or not we process your personal data and, where we do, access to the personal data, together with certain additional information. That additional information includes details of the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data concerned and the recipients of the personal data. Providing the rights and freedoms of others are not affected, we will supply to you a copy of your personal data. The first copy will be provided free of charge, but additional copies may be subject to a reasonable fee.

10. (j) the right to rectification;

You have the right to have any inaccurate personal data about you rectified and, taking into account the purposes of the processing, to have any incomplete personal data about you completed.

19 GDPR 2018 V1.1

11. (k) the right to erasure;

In some circumstances you have the right to the erasure of your personal data without undue delay. Those circumstances include: the personal data being no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which the data was collected or otherwise processed, you are no longer an Association member and wish the data not to be held for as long as is required.

Please note a request for data erasure for a current member would require that member to forfeit membership. The data is required for the Association to fulfil its obligations.

12. (l) the right to restrict processing;

In some circumstances you have the right to restrict the processing of your personal data. Those circumstances are: you contest the accuracy of the personal data; processing is unlawful but you oppose erasure; we no longer need the personal data for the purposes of our processing, but you require personal data for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims; and you have objected to processing, pending the verification of that objection. Where processing has been restricted on this basis, we may continue to store your personal data. However, we will only otherwise process it: with your consent; for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims; for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person; or for reasons of important public interest.

13. (m) the right to object to processing;

You have the right to object to our processing of your personal data for direct electronic communications purposes. If you make such an objection, we will cease to process your personal data for this purpose.

14. (n) the right to data portability;

To the extent that the legal basis for our processing of your personal data is that the processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are party and such processing is carried out by automated means, you have the right to receive your personal data from us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format. However, this right does not apply where it would adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others.

20 GDPR 2018 V1.1

15. (o) the right to complain to a supervisory authority;

If you consider that our processing of your personal information infringes data protection laws, you have a legal right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.
